Special Relief Facility (SRF)
1.	Why is the SRF only limited to SMEs adversely affected by COVID-19?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • SRF is aimed to provide immediate and targeted cash flow support to SMEs that are adversely impacted by the COVID-19 outbreak to sustain their business operations and safeguard jobs. • SMEs affected by the Movement Control Order (MCO) are also eligible to apply for the SRF given that the MCO was introduced by the Government to contain the outbreak of COVID-19. • For non-affected SMEs that are also seeking financing, they may apply for other financing facilities under BNM's Fund for SMEs (e.g. All Economic Sectors (AES) Facility, Automation and Digitalisation Facility (ADF), Agrofood Facility (AF) and Micro Enterprises Facility (MEF)), subject to the eligibility criteria of each facility and the assessment by the Participating Financial Institutions (PFIs).
2.	How can SMEs know that they are eligible to apply for financing under the SRF?	SMEs are advised to call or email the PFIs to ascertain their eligibility under the SRF. All applications for financing will be subjected to the assessment by the PFIs.
3.	Are Malaysian SMEs with more than RM5 million of shareholders funds eligible to apply?	Yes. All applications for financing will be subjected to the assessment by the PFIs.
4.	Is SRF open to existing customers of the PFIs only?	No, SRF is open to all new and existing SME customers of the PFIs.
5.	Can SMEs apply for the SRF multiple times with different PFIs? What if the SMEs are companies with common shareholder(s)?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Yes, SMEs can apply for the SRF multiple times, with the total aggregated approved financing capped at RM1 million per SME, subject to the assessment by the PFIs. • Different SMEs with common shareholder(s) will be subject to separate maximum financing limits, provided that the SMEs have different workforces.
6.	Can SMEs obtain the SRF to repair or renovate existing business premises?	No. The SRF is solely for working capital purposes only.
7.	Can SMEs obtain the SRF to re-finance existing loans?	No. The SRF must NOT be used for re-financing of existing credit/financing facilities.
8.	Do SMEs need to provide collateral to obtain financing under the SRF?	No. Collateral is NOT required under the SRF.

No.	Question	Answer
9.	How much is the guarantee fee charged on financing under the SRF?	The requirement for guarantee on financing under the SRF will be based on the assessment by the PFIs. The guarantee coverage, if any, is provided by either Credit Guarantee Corporation Malaysia (CGC) or Syarikat Jaminan Pembiayaan Perniagaan (SJPP) up to 80% of the financing amount at a fee of 0.5% per annum. However, where applicable, this guarantee fee would already be included in the financing rate charged to the customers i.e. up to 3.5% per annum.
10.	Can SMEs apply for the SRF if they have fully utilised the RM5 million aggregate allocation under BNM's Fund for SMEs?	Yes. The maximum aggregate financing amount of RM5 million per SME under the BNM's Fund for SMEs does not apply to the SRF.
11.	If my business is not eligible for the SRF, what other support is available to me?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • SMEs that are not eligible for the SRF may also apply for financing from other facilities under BNM's Fund for SMEs or other financing products offered by the financial institutions. SMEs can also apply through the imSME¹ platform. Approval for financing under the above products and schemes are subjected to the specific scheme's eligibility criteria and assessment by the PFIs. • Additionally, SMEs can obtain financing advisory services through MyKNP (Khidmat Nasihat Pembiayaan) that provides advisory assistance and tips to improve eligibility for future financing and alternative sources of finance (www.myknp.com.my). • To ease the cash flow of SMEs that are likely to be the most affected by COVID-19, financial institutions will offer an automatic deferment/moratorium of all loan/financing repayments for a period of 6 months, with effect from 1 April 2020. • Further, SMEs can call or email their banks to request to reschedule and restructure (R&R) existing loan/financing facilities, if required. • For SMEs, in the event that the negotiation with financial institutions on rehabilitation of existing financing is unable to reach an amicable solution, SMEs may apply for the Small Debt Resolution Scheme (SDRS), which assists SMEs facing business financing problem with financial institutions through R&R of existing financing.
